The Human Resources Manager
First Bank of Nigeria

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my interest in the internship position at First Bank of Nigeria. I am currently a 300-level student at Dominion University, Ibadan, pursuing a degree in Software engineering with a solid foundation in both theoretical and practical aspects of technology, I am eager to contribute to and learn from your esteemed organization.

Throughout my academic journey, I have developed proficiency in Frontend web development, cloud engineering, Python, and JavaScript. I am a certified web developer by HIIT, which has equipped me with comprehensive knowledge and skills in creating and maintaining web applications. Additionally, my participation in programs such as the HNG internship has further honed my abilities and exposed me to real-world projects and collaborative environments.

My educational background has fostered a strong sense of curiosity and a drive to continually expand my knowledge. I am a dedicated and hardworking individual, committed to excellence in all my endeavors. I am confident that these attributes, combined with my technical skills, will enable me to make meaningful contributions to your team.

I am particularly drawn to First Bank of Nigeria because of its reputation for innovation and excellence in the banking sector. I am excited about the opportunity to work in an environment that values growth, learning, and technological advancement. I am eager to bring my skills to your organization and to gain valuable experience that will aid in my professional development.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the possibility of discussing how I can contribute to your team.

Yours sincerely,
Egemonye Jeremiah
